Announcements

•Please join us Friday, December 21st at 2:45pm in Lakeview's Multipurpose Room for our annual Holiday Sing!

•We know it is a busy time of year for many families, but please be sure your child is getting a good night's sleep and dressing appropriately for the winter weather. Research tells us that students who are well rested perform better academically.

•On the back of this newsletter you will see 2nd Quarter's Word Wall List. Your child will be tested over these words before the winter break. They will need to read each word 1 per second. Thank you for your continued support!

Word Wall Words

Please practice reading and writing the following word wall words during homework time:
